

Career Exploration Internet Sites

<http://www.educationplanner.org> - site providing career and college planning information; research schools

<http://www.jobprofiles.org/> - learn from people in selected careers about their background; job rewards and stresses; basic skill requirements; future challenges; and advice for entering the career field

<http://www.acinet.org/acinet/explore.asp> - identify career needs; explore options for work and learning; finding financial assistance for education; view 450 career videos on selected occupations

<http://www.stats.bls.gov/oco/home.htm> - Occupational Outlook Handbook - learn about specific careers and job duties; salary; working conditions; training and education; and job outlook

<http://www.collegeboard.com/apps/careers/index> - learn about occupations; working conditions; future job outlook; related professions; and how you can best prepare now for your future career

<http://www.princetonreview.com/cte/default.asp> - take a personal interest/career quiz; how college majors relate to potential careers; find schools that offer your major

<http://www.pacareerlink.state.pa.us/homeframe.asp?nocacheid=63200514738> - learn about available jobs in PA; and employment services

<http://www.jobweb.com/resources/default.htm> - interview and resume skills information; job outlook; salary information; college resources; career fairs; career development; majors and careers; and much more

<http://www.healthcareers.org/main/careers.htm> - health career information and job outlook

<http://www.myfuture.com> - learn about military related careers; take a work interest inventory; and personality inventory

<http://www.mapping-your-future.org/> - choosing a career; establishing career goals; selecting a school; financial planning; and paying for college

<http://www.adventuresineducation.org/highschool> - developing your career goals; choosing a college; preparing for transition to college; college application information; financial aid; and finding employment

<http://mycollegeoptions.com/index.asp> - provides help in choosing a major by using your identified personal interests and goals; and explore this site more to help you find the right college for you

<http://www.khake.com/page2.html> - career descriptions about various vocational and technical jobs

<http://www.dol.gov/> - US Dept. of Labor site

<http://www.careervoyages.gov/> - explore careers that are in high demand

<http://www.bls.gov/k12/index.htm> - Bureau of Labor and Statistics; provides information about various career and subject interest areas

http://www.kids.gov/k\_careers.htm - provides information and links to numerous career sites, many include unique and non-traditional careers

<http://www.hbcumentor.org/Career/CareerCenter/> - Historically Black Colleges and Universities website with career information, assessments, career matching, and links to other career resources

<http://www.jobstar.org/tools/career/spec-car.cfm> - provides guides on various careers, includes frequently asked questions about the careers, employment outlook, working conditions, etc.

